Women Golfers to Elect and Install Officers Tuesday

Election and installation of officers will be held for the coming year for the women of the Astoria Golf and Country Club on Tuesday at 1 p.m. at a luncheon in the Trailer Club house.

Chairman for the event is Mrs. C. McElhany. Assisting her are Mrs. J. Rippett, Mrs. R. Banks and Mrs. F. Kindred.

Reservations may be made by calling the club house by Sunday evening.

Weather permitting, golf will be played on Tuesday morning, with women making their own pairing.

All members are urged to attend this, the final women's golf event of this season, according to Mrs. McElhany.

Astoria Golf, Country Club Women Meet

A total of 52 women members of the Astoria Golf and Country Club gathered for the last time in the trailer club house for their "off-with-the-old" and "on-with-the-new" annual meeting.

The election and installation of officers for the coming year was held with honors given to those who had served during 1969.

Elected to office were Mrs. Richard Paulsen, president, Mrs. Joe Bruneau, secretary, Mrs. Faurest Anderson, treasurer, and Mrs. Blair Henningsgaard, team captain. Mrs. William Daggatt, Mrs. Bill Van Dusen and Mrs. Sion Wentworth will serve jointly as social chairmen. Yarn corsages were presented to the newly elected officers, made by Mrs. John Rippett.

A short business meeting, conducted by Mrs. John Day, retiring president, was held. Mrs. Lawson Stevenson, team captain announced the special golf awards of the year, and gave her year's golf report and recommendations.

Mrs. Joe Bakkensen was the winner of the most improved player prize given by the club professional, Marlow Quick.

In the Eclectic competition, A class, Mrs. Graham Barbey won the low gross of 66; Mrs. Vic Horgan first low net with 55; Mrs. Charles Mooney second low net with 56; B class, Mrs. Howard Burns won low gross; Mrs. Arthur Anderson, and Mrs. Sven Lund tied for low net with 57 each; C class, Mrs. Joe Bruneau won low gross.

Mrs. J. D. Hendrickson was awarded the annual OWGA prize given the player who had the lowest aggregate for four out of six designated plays during the summer season.

On taking office, Mrs. Paulson, the new president announced the New Year dance which will be held in the new club house for members only, and the first of the month bridge luncheons on Wednesday, Jan. 13, for members and guests. Mrs. Jay Brown will chairmen for bridge activities for the year.

The social chairman requested phone reservations at the clubhouse for the New Years dance, a semiformal event.

Sunset Social

Golf, Country Clubhouse Unique in Decor, Style

By BRIDGET COOPER
Daily Astorian Social Editor

The Astoria Golf and Country Club house, open less than a month, is a delight to the eye in gold and orange tones. The clubhouse, for members only, will be dedicated in February or March by Gov. Tom McCall, according to Tom McDonough, manager of the country club.

In the upper right photo an overall view of the bar, lounge and a portion of the dining room areas are shown. The flexibility of the floor plan is demonstrated in the meeting of men in the foreground, near the gas fireplace, a meeting of women in the rear of the room discussing future club activities. They do not disturb the bar area where Betty Becker, day bartender, chats with a guest. Note the large use of windows overlooking the golf course and carpeting throughout that will cater to golfers' cleats with ease.

Mrs. Richard Paulsen, president of the women's organization of the country club, prepares to order from the elegant dinner menu in the clubhouse dining room, in the upper left photo. The formal dining room menu features gourmet dinners for two and offers a wide variety of imported and domestic wines. Chef Dan Sherman, formerly of Roseburg, is a junior member of the Chef de Cuisine. The dining room is open Wednesday through Sunday and the luncheon menu is served Tuesday through Sunday from 11:30 to 3 p.m. The fireplace in the background was designed by Ardena Larson of Astoria and built by a company in Portland who also built the fireplace hood in the ballroom of the clubhouse. Both were designed exclusively for the clubhouse decor.

The clubhouse, located south of Astoria on Highway 101, cost approximately $443,000 to build, with $100,000 being spent on the decor and furnishings, and $343,000 on the structure itself. The dining room seats 60 people, the lounge seats 120 and the ballroom seats 200. The fully storable dance floor of three square foot sections costs $3,500 and is constructed of parquet oak hardwood and each section weighs 35 pounds. The floor, stored in an adjacent room when not in use, can be fitted into a 9 by 12 foot or 24 by 24 foot dance floor, depending upon the size needed.

The clubhouse is not quite complete, according to McDonough. There is probably two weeks more work to do before completion, he commented.

The first public affair to be held in the new clubhouse is scheduled for tonight when the annual Astoria Chamber of Commerce banquet will be held in the ballroom.

Astoria Country Club Greets New Year in Their New Clubhouse

Remembrances of the past and anticipation of the future were the New Year's greetings at the Astoria Golf and Country Club on Dec. 31, during the dinner and dance.

A total of 400 members attended the semi-formal event in the newly opened clubhouse.

Next social event for the clubhouse will be a bridge luncheon for the women to be held next Tuesday.

Bridge Luncheon Slated Wednesday By Country Club

The first of a series of bridge luncheons planned for women and guests for the Astoria Golf and Country Club is scheduled for Wednesday in the newly completed clubhouse.

A social hour is set for 12 noon with luncheon at 12:30 p.m. and bridge and prize awarding to follow, according to Mrs. Reuben Kuratli and Mrs. Clayton Morse, co-chairmen for the event.

Reservations must be made not later than Sunday evening, by phoning the clubhouse, 861-1121.

The bridge luncheon series will continue as a regular event on the second Wednesday of the month and is open to members and their friends, according to Mrs. J. Brown, general bridge social chairman.

Country Club Women Attend Luncheon

A total of 98 womens club members and their guests thronged into the lounge room of the Astoria Golf and Country Club Wednesday to attend the first of a monthly series of luncheons on the social calendar for the ensuing year.

The newly completed lounge, in shades of tawney greens and gold, made a fitting background for the large arrangement of cat tails and wild life fauna displayed in a brass urn on the apron of the fireplace. Potted chrysanthemums in shades of gold and bronze, which were later used as special prizes for the guests, were the only other decoration used in the room.

Bridge followed the luncheon, and prizes were awarded at the close of the afternoon's play. Mrs. Guerney drew the award for high score for bridge, and Mrs. Henry Pusti, the low. Special prizes went to Mrs. Everett McNeily, and Mrs. Frank Gillard. Mrs. Ruben Kuratli and Mrs. Clayton Morse were co-chairmen for the event.

Mrs. Jay Briwn, general bridge chairman for the year, urged women to make their own arrangements for bridge and luncheon on any Tuesday, as that is a special day set aside for women's activities. She pointed out that the general bridge luncheon will be the second Wednesday of each month.

Women's Auxiliary At Country Club Slates Meeting

The Womens' Auxiliary of the Astoria Golf and Country club will hold a business meeting at the clubhouse on Tuesday, at 9:30 a.m. according to Mrs. Richard C. Paulsen, president. There will be a 9-hole golf competition to follow, weather permitting.

The winter tournament is underway and will continue until March 15. Rules for this event are posted on the bulletin board. Mrs. Jack Keeler is chairman of this tournament.

Tuesday, February 3, 1970 - WOMEN'S MEETING

Women's Planning Meeting. All members welcome. A discussion of ideas for golf and social activities for the coming year. Please attend and make this year a great one for activities at the Club.

Sunday, February 8 - MEN'S BREAKFAST CLUB

This is the first meeting of the new year. There will be a buffet breakfast served at 8:15 a.m. with golf to follow. Your chairmen for the coming year are Walt Peterson and Harvey Mills; they have planned a great year for you with new ideas and more prizes. The Board Representative is Jim McCallister. Come and have some fun!

Wednesday, February 11 - HEARTS DELIGHT BRUNCH

This month's co-chairladies will be Mrs. Rolf Klep and Mrs. John Wilfley, and they have planned a nice party. Cards start at 10:30 with brunch buffet to follow at 12:00; cards to resume til 2:30. The committee has asked that there be no signing for the $2.00 charge per member, so, Ladies, bring your cash. A great time is promised!

Saturday, February 14 - PRESIDENT'S BALL

A formal dinner dance will be held to honor our past and current presidents. Gen. and Mrs. Wilson Johnston are co-chairmen, assisted by a great committee. Planned are a New York Steak dinner and music by a great band. No-host cocktails at 7:30 followed by dinner at 8:00, charge is $10.00 per couple. Reservations will be appreciated by calling 861-1121. This is a long-standing Club tradition, so don't miss it!

Friday, February 20 - SEAFOOD BUFFET

The second Seafood Buffet; the first was a success - ask someone who attended! We will feature eight fish items plus salads, etc. All you can eat from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. in the Main Ball Room. Cost to you is just $4.50 per person.

Sunday, February 22 - SUNDAY FAMILY BUFFET

Another first for us! A Baron of Beef buffet in the Main Ball Room, featuring lots of salads and beef carved to your satisfaction at the buffet table. This is for the whole family, and will be served from 5:00 to 8:00 p.m.; bring them all, but please tell us you are coming by calling 861-1121.

Friday, February 27, 1970 - WINE TASTE

Hillcrest and Bjelland Vineyards from Douglas County, Oregon, will put on a wine taste for us this month. This is one of Oregon's newest industries and is in its infancy as such, but you will be surprised at the quality of these fine Oregon wines. Please call and tell us you'll be there - 861-1121.

FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK

We certainly enjoyed a fine month in January, and find everything is running smoothly. We appreciate your making reservations and hope you will continue to phone them into us so we may give you the fine service you deserve.

Mark your calendars for the following coming events:

March 7 - German Beerstube
April 18 - After Taxes Dance
May 23 - Cotton Ball
June 27 - Men's Fun Day

Til next month -

Weather Too Much

On The Beach

A host of golden daffodils blooming along the coast highway near Seaside was not fluttering and dancing in the breeze last weekend. They could scarcely keep their heads above water. The weather was too much even for the seagulls.

However — to continue in the Wordsworth vein — tossing their heads in sprightly dance Saturday night were members of the Astoria Golf and Country Club. Down for the President's Ball from Portland were the Erling Jacobsens and Lew and Donna Kennedy, who shared a Gearhart condo for the weekend.

The new clubhouse, which made its official debut New Year's Eve, functionally is first rate. It flows. But, to be honest, the decor is somewhat controversial to say the least. One guest was overheard to remark cuttingly that the interior reminded her of pollution.

Evidently a designer skilled in decorating bars was given his head. But the building easily will handle large crowds, a great benefit during their annual Oregon Coast tournament.

Among those in the receiving line Saturday night was the club's new president, Harry Swanson, who was presented a plaque at dinner by Brig. Gen (ret.) J. Wilson Johnston. Taking several months to organize, it listed past presidents of the club.

The fire which leveled the old club house destroyed records dating back to 1924 when the club was founded, and members were hard put to come up with past-presidents' names and their continuity of office.

Majority of female guests wore handsome floor length gowns, which helped offset the decor. A near disaster was late word that the Byll (sorry, but that's the way the spelling crumbles) Davis band hired for the dinner dance had been hamstrung by flu. Undaunted, club manager Tom McNonough rounded up a group of musicians calling themselves the Top Brass who are students at various colleges in the Portland area. They kept guests hopping.

One retired couple who could contribute a great deal to the forthcoming 2nd annual Beachcombers Festival this weekend at the Seaside will be missing. Helen and Ervin Smith of Gearhart are the ultimate in beachcombing, hill-scrouring, old dumps and desert digging. Presently they are in Arizona pursuing the latter two.

Inside their fenced front garden of stones and pines stands a driftwood tree trunk decorated by royal blue bottles. The bottles — small Bromo Seltzers, Vaporub, milk of magnesia, an Ingram shaving cream — are wired to the limbs sideways to prevent rain water from filling them.

For the past four or five years the Smiths have loaded their car with glass floats before heading for Phoenix and Tucson where they trade the floats for bottles turned wonderful psychedelic shades from the alkali of the desert.

Their modern house on Gearhart Heights is filled with fascinating hobby pickings. Also in their rock garden are stepping stones of old iron stove doors they've dug up. Mrs. Smith wields a featherduster to keep the thousands of bottles they've collected clean.

When they set off in a four-wheel drive Jeep to scrounge locally, armed with machetes and bent potato forks, they do not observe ol' Satch Paige's admonition of not looking behind. Before turning off a road, they look back to see if anyone is following. It's obvious their technique is successful.

Yours, MARY F.

A WORD ABOUT RESERVATIONS

For various functions mentioned in this bulletin you often see a note to please call the office with your reservations. This is done to make sure we have enough staff, food, tables, etc. It is one way we, the Staff, can make your time at the Club more enjoyable. So, please make reservations for Club events and when you plan to come to dinner by calling us at 561-1127. Thank you.

Golf Women Slate Club Luncheon

The Astoria Golf and Country Club women will hold their opening golf luncheon for the coming season on Tuesday, March 3, at 1 p.m., with a meeting to follow.

The days play competition will be a nine hole sweepstakes with women asked to make their own game. The 18 hole competition will begin on March 17 with pairings posted.

Reservations for the luncheon should be made at the clubhouse by Sunday for those who have not already signed up, or with Mrs. Joe Bakkensen, or Mrs. Howard Burns, chairman for the month of March. All golf and social women members are invited to attend.

The nine hole winter tournament continues through March 16 with prizes to be awarded at the April meeting.

Beginner and intermediate golf lessons for women members will start on March 17 and will continue for five months with Marlow Quick, club golf pro, in charge.

Monthly Golf Winners Announced By Club

Astoria Golf and Country Club will feature a spring style show and bridge luncheon Wednesday at the clubhouse.

The modeling of the new spring fashions will begin at 12 noon with lunch and bridge to follow, according to Mrs. Robert Chopping and Mrs. Jim Clune, co-chairmen. Mrs. Harry Steinbock will comment on the fashions as they are presented by Astoria merchants.

Models for the bridge luncheon are Mrs. Ed Niemi, Mrs. Joe Dyer, Mrs. D. A. Dickinson, Mrs. Kenneth McAlpin, Mrs. Tony Stramiello, Mrs. Laino Wright, Mrs. Ed Quinn, Mrs. Jorma Leinassar, Mrs. Nick Zafiratos, Mrs. Marlowe Quick, Mrs. Robert Anderson, and Mrs. Jerry McCallister.

Reservations should be phoned into the clubhouse by Tuesday for the luncheon.

The opening golf luncheon held at the Country Club on Tuesday was attended by 74 women with a decor of spring flowers. A short business meeting with Mrs. R. C. Paulsen, presiding followed the luncheon. Team captain, Mrs. B. J. Henningsgaard asked all women members of the Country Club who wish to join the women golf group to contact her.

The first scheduled 18 hole golf play will be Tuesday, March 17, with pairings posted in the clubhouse on the bulletin board.

Golf winners for the month of January at the Country Club were Ferne Morse, Mary Rippe, Esther Klock, Class A; Rosemary Stevenson, Inge Hendrickson, class B; Frankye Thompson, Margaret Bruneau, class C.

Winners for the month of February were Anne Barbey, Tina Stramiello, Anne McGowan, class A; Bea Day, Blanche Anderson, Rosemary Stevenson, class B; Frankye Thompson, Alice Link, Judy Dean, class C.

Winners of the door prizes at the Tuesday luncheon were Mrs. P. Scallon, Mrs. E. Kindred and Mrs. M. Hendrickson, Mrs. E. Bowers Jr., Mrs. Harry McCall, Mrs. M. McCourt, Mrs. G. Link, Mrs. D. Treharne, and Mrs. C. Stroup.

Bierstube, Style Show Are Events At Country Club

Schottisches and polkas, as well as more modern tunes, were fun fare at the Astoria Golf and Country Club on a recent Saturday night.

At the bierstube fete the tables featured ceramic beer stems in place of water glasses. Multicolored swags on the ceiling, grape clusters and jvy on the tables, lent an Oktoberfest air, and many "Prosts" were heard around the room as guests toasted one another.

A style show, attended by 150 women where members viewed clothes from Astoria merchants was held last Wednesday by the Country Club. Bridge followed the style show in the afternoon.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Art Dempsey, Mrs. Ed Treharne, and Mrs. Nathan White. The high bridge score was won by Mrs. Martin Severson and the low bridge prize by Mrs. James Clune.

Mrs. Robert Chopping was chairman for the style show, and Mrs. John Gizdavich and Mrs. Jack Keefer were co-chairmen for bridge.

Astoria Country Club Slates Bierstube

A bierstube, complete with authentic German band and cuisine, is billed as the "fun event of the year" at Astoria Golf and Country Club Saturday night.

Keg tapping starts at 7:30 p.m. Dress is casual, with those possessing lederhosen or a dirndlkleid or similar German attire urged to wear them.

Reservations should be submitted by Friday to the clubhouse.

Chairmen of the social event are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lovell, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. William Larson, Mr. and Mrs. Si Wentworth, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Nunenkamp and Carol Van Dusen.

New Clubhouse Assist Women Golfers

All records of the Astoria Golf and Country Club Women were burned in the fire of their clubhouse in Mary, 1969, and memories of the older members are all that remain of the history and activities of the women before that date.

Mrs. Jens Lerback, Seaside, recalls that there were only eight women golfers in 1936. She said that during the war years there were no planned tournaments or activities, and that after the war, playing resumed on Tuesdays. Tournaments, exchange days with other clubs, fun days of "cross country" golf, were also then resumed.

When slot machines were legal, the Club did not have problems of how to pay for painting, furniture, remodeling and such. When the machines became illegal and money had to be raised in other ways, especially when the cook and help all took the month of February off, the women organized a pot-luck dinner dance. Everyone brought food, and also paid for the dance. Picnics were held on the putting green in the summer.

Some of the past presidents of the women of the country club are Mrs. Charles Holderman, Mrs. Luke Sassnet, Mrs. Sherman Lovell, Mrs. Frank Holderman, Mrs. Lloyd Burgess, Mrs. Vernon Fowler, Mrs. Fred Sandoz, Mrs. Neil Morfitt, Mrs. Frank Gillard, Mrs. Graham Barbey, Mrs. John McGowan, Mrs. Tom Williams, Mrs. Merv Edward, Mrs. Eugene Lowe, Mrs. Frank Maize, Mrs. Howard Burns, Mrs. E. J. McElhaney, and Mrs. John Day.

Membership has grown considerably over the past ten years until now the Womens Golf Association has more than 100 members. The team captain plan all the golf activities and she has numerous committees to assist her. Among the activities for the women are Tuesday golf, visitations from other clubs such as Seaside, Gearhart, Tillamook, Longview and Forest Hills. Two ball foursomes are held on Sunday afternoons followed by family buf-

Astoria Clubhouse Dedication Billed

10A

Staff Photos by Jim Hallas

HARRY SWANSON is president of the club which saw its clubhouse burn to the ground in June, 1968. New building on original site has 17,000 square feet with social and dining areas on top floor, sport facilities below.

THOMAS McDONOUGH is manager of the club. He stands under distinctive chandeliers in foyer of new clubhouse designed by Fiedler-Lyons at a cost of $350,000, plus $100,000 for furnishings.

SOME 400 members play Astoria, a rugged championship course which sometimes finds the Pacific Ocean in view.

ASTORIA GOLF and Country Club will dedicate its new clubhouse Saturday noon with Governor Tom McCall on hand for the festivities. Founded in 1920, the club will hold its annual tournament in June, the oldest such continuous competition in the Northwest.

Governor Dedicates Club House

Gov. Tom McCall will dedicate the Astoria Golf and Country Club House Saturday between the hours of 11:30 a.m. and noon, and the public is invited to attend, according to Tom McDonough, country club manager.

The dedication will include ribbon cutting ceremonies and a five minute talk on a topic to be announced. Harry Swanson, president of the board of directors of the country club and members of the board will participate in the ceremony.

The original 44 year old clubhouse was destroyed by fire June 1, 1968, during the early morning hours, and the new building was built on the same location on Highway 101 south of Astoria. The building, costing $443,000 to build with $100,000 spent on furnishings, features gold and orange tones with large expanses of windows overlooking the golf course.

McDonough said, "This will be the only time the country club will be open to the public as it is a membership club. Various club managers from throughout the state will be attending the dedication ceremonies as this is one of the most modern clubhouses in the state of Oregon. This building was built by club managers, for club managers with the plans featuring both function and versatility. This is the building's greatest asset, it's versatility."

A luncheon will be held at 12:30 p.m. for Gov. McCall, the board of directors and their wives.

Co-chairmen for the dedication ceremonies are McDonough and Bill Van Dusen.

Gov. McCall plans on a round of golf before or after his visitation.

FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK

As we approach summer and longer hours, we hope to see more and more people enjoying their beautiful new Club House. As you all know by now, the building was dedicated by Governor Tom McCall on Saturday, April 11, and our press and TV coverage was great. Business has been good here at the Club. The monthly parties are very well attended and the dining room use on weekends is just fantastic. This brings to mind RESERVATIONS. Please call us and let us know when you are coming. As you can see from the calendar, this month is going to be a busy, busy one, and your reservations will help things to run smoothly. Our phone number here is 861-1121, and the new Seaside number is 738-8358. During May, there will be a new menu in the dining room, it is our desire to make the Club the best place to eat on the Coast and feel updating of the menu is in order. Also, during the summer months of May, June, July and August, we will feature on the dinner menu a Golfer's Special at $2.95 per dinner. Don't forget that we have a children's menu at all times in the dining room. At the last Board of Directors meeting, the Directors established the Club hours which will be posted on the bulletin boards in the locker rooms. Should you, the members, have any ideas for parties or suggestions of any nature, please do not hesitate to stop by the office and see me. Would like to remind all of you to be sure to return your signature cards. Till next month --

Regards,
Tom McDonough

All Plans Complete at Country Club For 60th Annual 'Coast' Tournament

Sixtieth annual Oregon Coast Invitational golf tourney gets officially underway Sunday at the Astoria Country Club, but vanguard of those coming from the more distant points of Oregon and Washington and other regions will arrive this weekend.

The tourney runs through July 25 and will attract several hundred men and women golfers, including heavy representation from Astoria and Seaside areas.

Defending champions expected back from last year's play are Ralph Dichter, Grand Championship; Bob Grant, Junior-Senior Men; J. W. Johnston, Senior Men; and Cathy Gaghan, Women's division.

The four divisions range in flights of 16 to 32. The Grand Championship has 32 flights, others 16, with drop flights in all of them.

Grand Championship consists of the 21-44 age bracket, Junior-Senior, men of 45-54, Senior, men 55 and over, and Women, 18 and over.

Local Committees

The tournament committee consists of Johnston as general chairman again and Dr. Jorma Leinassar, deputy chairman, with Mrs. Harry Swanson in charge of registration. Rules are in charge of Edward Thompson, Joe Schneider and Johnston, with Mrs. Faurest Anderson heading prizes and trophies. OREGON COAST TOURNEY RUNS

'King' Ralph Dichter Seeded; Bearman Medalist in Top Flight

JIM MCNEELEY
Cinderella Finish

By GRADY PANNELL
Daily Astorian Sports Editor

The "king of the coast" had the day off Sunday. Rightly so. Defending champions did not have to display their official form on opening day of the 60th annual Oregon Coast Invitational golf tourney for Northwest amateurs at the Astoria Country Club.

"King" Ralph Dichter of Gearhart, who goes out today in defense of the Grand Championship crown, also seeks his ninth men's title over a span of winning years that began in 1952. He has been in the finals of this division in 13 of the past 21 years. He shot a par practice round Sunday.

Dichter was present for the biggest opening day tourney of record and under mostly cloudy skies but with little wind and good golfing temperatures. He saw Tom Bearman of the North Shore Country Club, Auburn, Wash., win medalist honors in the Grand Championship division with a par 72. The young school teacher, in the tourney 13 times, pulled it out on the 18th tee by one stroke over young Jeff Leinassar of Astoria, N. Nelson and G. Hval. Bearman said that Dichter's redhot practice round of 65 Friday made him a little nervous.

Cinderella Finish

The Cinderella effort of the day, however, was by Astoria club member Jim McNeeley, who just managed to survive in the championship flight with an 80. Par putts of 12 and 20 feet at the 16th and 17th did it for him.

Also on the sidelines Sunday as defending champ in the Men's Junior-Senior Championship division was Seaside's Bob Grant. Tied for medalist were George Abrahamson of Astoria and Bill Wilcox of the host club, each with 74s. They will be in a nine-hole playoff for the trophy later in the week.

Members of the distaff side--women golfers--teed off this morning, along with qualifying shooters in the Men's Senior Championship and the leaders in the Men's Grand Championship.

More than 200 golfers were playing Sunday, with 208 having signed up in advance out of a total field of 354 entrants, including the class of Northwest women amateurs.

Several of the pre-tourney leading contenders failed to make the top flight. Such as Jack Sias of Portland and Bob Inlandfield of Seattle, each with 82s, and Mike Stoll, Portland, an 84.

Bob Canessa Captures Oregon Coast

Intense Bob Canessa, who dabbles in stock for a living, dogged the heels of young George Mack most of the day Saturday and finally caught the "giant killer" on the 38th hole to put him away with a nine-foot putt and the championship of the 5th annual Oregon Coast Invitational golf tourney.

The Eugene stockbroker is a former Astoria boy, son of Mrs. Vieno Canessa, 386 W. Marine, and the late Leland Canessa of this city. He attended Astoria High, where he played varsity baseball and basketball, and later played baseball in Oregon. He is a nephew of Verne Stratton.

Young Canessa learned his golf on the Astoria Country Club course.

Tourney talk was "all Dichter" before and during week's play until Mack upset the defending champ Friday. Then, Mack was the "man to beat," according to the large gallery.

Extra Hole Decided

Canessa got his chance Saturday on the 36th hole when he rolled in an eight-foot putt to deadlock Mack and send the Men's Championship playoffs into a "sudden death" game. Both stayed even with par shots on the first extra hole, and both drove badly off 37, an area of trees and traps.

Each was blocked from the 38th green by trees and each hit masterful chips in getting on the greens. In fact, Canessa's chip shot missed Mack's ball by only two inches, but the champ had the better putter and ended the day-long battle there.

Seattle Girl Wins

In another drama-packed ending involving women, the championship in the Women's division finally went to a Seattle girl, Edean Ihlanfeldt. She bested favored Sue DeVoe of Gresham, a school teacher. Women's favorite Cathy Gaughan was knocked out by Miss DeVoe the day before in defense of the division championship.

There were also new champions Men's Senior and Junior-Senior divisions. Winning the Seniors was R. J. Nichols while Junio-Senior titlist was Dale Fisher. Nichols is from King City Golf Club. Tourney chairman was the defending Seniors champ, Gen. J. W. Johnston, Surf Pines, who dropped down to the first flight and won this flight from fellow club member Bob Anderson of Astoria on the 22nd hole Saturday.

Two Aces Scored

Saturday's final rounds saw a pair of holes-in-one recorded, both on the 189-year fourth hole by Loren Underwood of Forest Hills and Mrs. Paul Campbell of Waverly.

Presenting awards and trophies following windup of the tournament Saturday afternoon were Gen. Johnston and Club President Harry Swanson, assisted by club pro Marlow Quick and club manager Tom McDonough.

Golf and Country Club names Mrs. Bowers new champ

Mrs. Ed Bowers Jr. is the new Women's Club champion of the Astoria Golf and Country Club. Mrs. Bowers won the distinction by defeating last year's champion, Mrs. Jack Keeler, in the final round of the championship tournament held recently at the club.

Opening rounds were 1st place Mrs. Bowers, 2nd Mrs. John McGowan runner-up, 3rd Mrs. Doug Palmer, 4th Mrs. Ed Treharne, 5th Mrs. J. McElheney, 6th Mrs. Gilbert Janowski, 7th Mrs. Ted Bellingham, 8th Mrs. Robert Elsensohn runner-up.

Second round winners by Mrs. Graham Barbey and co-chairman Mrs. John McGowan were Mrs. Jack Keeler and Mrs. Ralph Bowers.

Third round winners by Mrs. John McGowan were Mrs. Jack Keeler and Mrs. Ed Bowers.

Class A winners Mrs. Jack Keeler and Mrs. Ed Bowers, 2nd Mrs. Richard

Paulsen;

Class 3: low gross Mrs. Clayton Morse; low net Mrs. Faur-est Anderson;

Class C: low gross Mrs. Ernest Barrows; low net Mrs. Joe Bruneau.

Golf balls for the month of July weekly competition were awarded to Mrs. Barbey, Mrs. Hunt Lewis and Mrs. Bowers Sr. in Class A;

Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Rodney Banks and Mrs. John Rippett in Class B;

Mrs. Ralph Long, Mrs. Albert Janowski, Mrs. Ted Bellingham, Mrs. Gene Mathews, Mrs. Joe Bruneau, and Mrs. Ken Klatterman in Class C.

Low gross honors went to

Mrs. Graham Barbey, Mrs. Russell Klock and Mrs. Ted Bellingham.

Golf Series Slated Friday

The first of a twilight mixed "two-ball" series for members of the Astoria Golf and Country Club is scheduled for Friday at 5 p.m., according to Capt. and Mrs. Joe Bruneau, chairmen for the event.

Players may make their own games, or be on the tee promptly at or before the stated hour for arranged pairings. Late comers may tee off whenever they arrive. "A shot gun start will be used to speed up play, with electric carts going to far-away tees, should the number of players warrant it," says chairman Bruneau.

A social hour with presentation of prizes will follow the play. No special dinner arrangements will be made, but for those who wish to stay a "golf special" will be included on the general menu Friday.

Golf series

The second of a twilight series of "two-ball" competition for members of the Astoria Golf and Country Club is planned for Friday at 5 p.m. with Captain and Mrs. J. L. Bruneau again in charge of the event.

Nine holes of golf, followed by a "two-ball" and presentation of prizes is the order of the day, with a "golf special" on the dinner menu for those who wish to stay. Couples may make up their own games or be on the tee promptly for a draw the pairings.

After Bruneau's turnout of 32 players was the largest of the summer mixed two ball events and was well attended making it a regular weekly occurrence, not only this, according to Mrs. Clayton Morse, general chairman.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1970 - PATIO STEAK PARTY

This is going to be a fun party. Byrill Davis' Orchestra from Portland is playing for your dancing pleasure. For something different we are having a "Cook Your Own 12 oz. New York Steak" on the patio deck. We will have three barbecue grills plus our Chef Dan Sherman to either help you cook your own or he will be most happy to cook for you. In addition to this we will feature a summer buffet of salads and fresh fruit for your dining pleasure. Cocktails start at 7:00. Dinner is available from 8:00 to 9:30. Music starts at 9:00. The cost is $5.00 per person. Reservations would be appreciated - so why not make up a party now and come and enjoy a fun party planned for you.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1970 - SEAFOOD BUFFET

A continuing popular feature of your Club is our famous Friday night Seafood Buffets. Our Chef Dan Sherman has some great fish recipes and they change every month. For your dancing pleasure after the Buffet we will have the Floyd Pittard Trio for your enjoyment from 9:00 to midnight. Reservations would be appreciated. Phone the office now at 861-2211.

SUNDAY, AUGUST 16, 1970 - FATHER/SON GOLF TOURNAMENT

An annual event for our fathers and their sons. Sign up at the Pro Shop and then why not make reservations for dinner at the Club for the whole family after a nice day of golf.

GOLF NEWS

The Oregon Coast is now history. It was the largest field ever and the most successful. The Club Championship is now in progress & the Father/Son Tournament is coming up during the month of August. Sign up at the Pro Shop now. We now have a new Assistant Pro. His name is Jim French and he is moving back to Astoria after spending some time in California. His wife's name is Cynthia. Why not stop by and welcome him and introduce yourself. Check the Pro Shop for some good buys in Summer clothes before the Fall and Winter line arrives.

FROM THE MANAGER'S DESK

First off this month I would like to thank the membership, the staff and General J. M. Johnston and his assistant, Dr. J. Leinassar for the most successful 60th Annual Oregon Coast Tournament. It was my pleasure to be part of this great tournament and I hope in this way to say "thank-you" for the greatest ever.

During the month of July we had a burglary and the Club suffered no loss as it was all covered by insurance.

Now that the tournament is past history we are returning to normal here at the Club. During this month we have a fun casual patio party and a great seafood buffet planned for your pleasure. For people who might not know our hours, I will repeat them here. Lunch is served from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. Tuesday thru Sunday. Dinner is served from 6:00 P.M. to 10:00 P.M. Wednesday thru Sunday with longer hours on Friday and Saturday - 'till 11:00 P.M. Breakfast is served on Sunday only from 7:30 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. In case you missed it the last couple of months, the Club phone number is changed to 861-2211 and our Seaside line is 736-8538.

Membership is growing at a good pace and our total now is 437 in all categories. Don't forget the initiation goes to $750 on October 1, 1970.

Beginning this month you will note a new format for the Club Bulletin. We hope you like its main features and I would appreciate any comments you might have regarding it - good or bad.

No progress on the new McDonough. It is now two weeks overdue, so hope to have some news next month.

In September we hope to have another Maine Lobster Feed, so keep it in mind. 'Till next month -

South has 6 tricks in Aces and Kings. We must look to our longest suit for extra tricks. If we play the Ace of Spades, K of Spades and give up one spade, we will have two good spades in the Dummy. How can we get to them? We can't. We must Duck the second spade and let either East or West win it. Then when we play the K of Spades, we will be in the dummy with the established spades. A club finesse is our only other chance for a ninth trick.

South has 7 top tricks. They have 7 hearts and 7 clubs, but the heart suit is better. If hearts are divided 3-3, the suit will break. South must give up the first heart trick and then the A and K will draw the rest of the hearts giving South 4 tricks in the suit instead of two. This is called a Duck Play and is used when you have a long suit in the Dummy with not many entries.

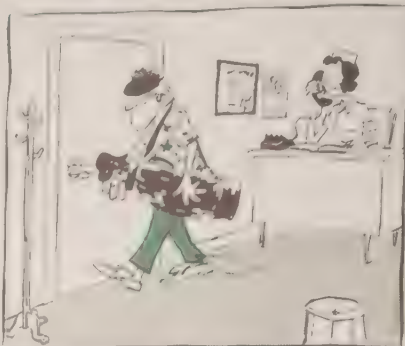

CLUB QUIPS

A tramp was sleeping behind the bunker of a golf course. The club manager kicked him none too gently and ordered him to clear out.

"And who are you?" demanded the tramp.

"I'm manager of the club," said the official.

"Well," replied the tramp, "that's no way to get new members."

"I'M SORRY, MRS. KAGEL, BUT DR. BRIDGEPLATE ALREADY HAS AN APPOINTMENT TO FILL 18 CAVITIES THIS AFTERNOON."

quarter swing is sufficient and should be as natural as with any other club in your bag but, as all shots must, the wedge should be struck with authority. Follow through, even on a short shot, to avoid a chopping swing. Control distance by the length of the backswing.

Work on it, and soon you'll develop a feel for the shot. However, if your short game persists in giving you trouble, the man to see is your Pro. He'll analyze your problem and suggest a remedy.

Pro Tips

Hitting With The Wedge

The wedge is the deadliest weapon in the bag, yet there are few who can manage it. It is a hazard club, for the shots that must be made with the wedge are the shots that trim strokes from your game.

Where the average player manages to flub his wedge shot is in the breaking of the smooth tempo of his swing. The temptation is to jump at the shot, to try and hit it before the clubhead reaches the ball. The result, quitting on the shot at impact—"chili dipping," or letting the clubhead come up on the shot "skulling it," as they say.

The average golfer should consider his distance with a pitching wedge to be about eighty yards maximum. The club is really for short distances, for the half shots, like little saves over trouble, the pitches uphill and the like.

Address the ball in the center line between the feet, with a slightly open stance. Take a normal grip, but choking down slightly. Sole the club at the exact point where you intend to strike the ball. Your aim should be to hit the ball at the same time the club is going into the turf under it.

Hands should be ahead of the ball. A three-

Baby Stacey Jean Gets Bath

'Silent Partner' Aided Victory For Astoria Country Club Golfer

Mrs. Ed (Sybil) Bowers Jr., in the tournament last year. I thought it only proper to bathe her in the bowl," said the "silent partner" of sorts when she won the OMGA tourney last year at Lake Oswego.

She was three month's pregnant at the time and, as far as is known, this was a record of sorts for the tourney. Her "silent partner" (well, almost) then is now a little bundle named Stacey Jean, four months old.

Mrs. Bowers today is at the Riverside course in Portland to defend her title. Prior to leaving for the tourney, however, she bathed her baby in the large sterling silver bowl trophy that is awarded annually to the champion.

"She (Stacey Jean) had a part in the tournament last year. I thought it only proper to bathe her in the bowl," said the "silent partner" of sorts when she won the OMGA tourney last year at Lake Oswego.

The tourney at Riverside runs through Friday. Mrs. Bowers hopes to repeat and vows another bath in the bowl for her little daughter if she wins.

In the 41-year-old history of the trophy, says Mrs. Bowers, probably no baby has ever had a bath in the sterling silver bowl.

An outstanding women's amateur player, Mrs. Bowers has been golfing for 14 years. She and her husband and children reside at Cullaby Lake. Other daughter is Michelle.

We have 1 heart loser and 2 diamond losers in this hand. How can we play the club suit to hope to make all the tricks. Play the K of clubs first. Never finesse on the first lead of a suit. Then lead the 3 of clubs from the dummy and if East plays the 10, put in the Jack. Now the play of the Ace will pick up the Queen and the last club is yours as well.

To avoid losing 2 hearts, we must finesse twice. Play the Jack of hearts from your hand. If West covers with an honor, take the Ace and force out the other honor. If West does not cover, let the Jack go through. The percentage play is for the honors to be divided. If the Jack lost to the K or Q: you would come back into your hand and play for the 10 for a second finesse.

GOLF ADDICT: "Of course I do, my dear; it was the day I sank that thirty-foot putt."

Golfer to prospective caddy:

"Can you count?" he asked.

"Yes, sir," said the boy.

"Can you add up?"

"Yes, sir," was the answer.

"Then, how many are four and five and three?"

"Nine, sir."

"Come on," said the Golfer. "You'll do."

And then there was the condemned golfer who asked the hangman, "Mind if I take a couple of practice swings?"

"What do you think would go well with my orange golf socks?"

"Hip boots."

Pro Tips

Take The Tension Out of Your Swing

Tension tightens muscles and prevents them from reacting gracefully during the swing.

To achieve a smooth and relaxed backswing, the right arm should be loose at the address, with a definite bend at the elbow. If the tip of your right elbow isn't close to your body, either your arm is too stiff or you are standing too far away from the ball.

With the right arm relaxed it bends more easily on the backswing and the body turn is easier to execute on an imaginary central axis.

If your game problems in swing you frustrate the men to see a pro. Let him analyze your problem and suggest a remedy.

Elsensohn and Mr. & Mrs. Chuck Mooney.

From the Manager's Desk. Well now that summer is behind us and we are approaching the Fall season you can see that we have lots of things planned for your pleasure. We the staff ask that you make reservations when you plan on using the club house for dinner or special functions. We can do a better job for you. The Board at the last meeting revised one rule on the letter sent last month. Namely: Women can play on Wednesday up to 10:30, but not in the afternoon. Please change your records.

October 1st the initiation fee of the Club increases to $750.00. We also have the Quarterly Time Plan with $250.00 down and a quarterly payment of $62.50. Any questions don't hesitate to call the office.

We now have a reciprocal agreement with The Aero Club in Portland. You as a member of AGCC have full charge privileges while you are using the facilities. You might be asked to show your membership card so please carry it. Any wives desiring a card please call the office. Now is the time to start thinking about your Christmas Parties and reserve a date at the Club. Mark your calendar now for the Club Christmas Formal on Saturday December 5, 1970. Hope to see you at the Club soon.

When West leads his 4 Spades, you know this is his best suit. You only have one stop in this suit, the Ace. You must execute a Hold Up Play. This simply means that you will not play the Ace until the third time the suit is led. When you lead the K of Clubs and East wins the Ace of Clubs, he will not have a spade to return to his partner. If West had the Ace of Clubs, the hand could not be made. But give yourself a chance by holding up when you only have one stop in a suit.

Golf liars have one advantage over the fishing kind—they don't have to show anything to prove it.

A sign on a Scottish golf course reads as follows: "Members will refrain from picking up lost balls until they have stopped rolling."

Overheard in the locker room:
"I hear that you dropped some money in Wall Street. Were you a bull or a bear?"
"Neither, just a plain, simple ass."

"If you spend so much time at golf you won't have anything laid aside for a rainy day."
"Won't I? My desk is loaded up with work that I've put aside for a rainy day."

GOLFER: "This golf course is in terrible condition, caddy, terrible!"

CADDY: "Sorry, sir, this ain't the golf course you got off it an hour ago."

"O.K., SAM SNEAD. NOW LET'S SEE ONE OF YOUR MASTERFUL IRON SHOTS."

A 6 2

We have 3 small spades. There's no use hoping the opponents are going to throw away all their beautiful spades; so give them two spades and then trump the third.

Let your guide be this: When you have a short suit in the dummy, and losers in that suit in your hand, don't draw trumps. Trump your losers first! The good player always tries to use the dummy's trump to trump losers and the trumps in his hand to draw the opponents trumps.

The first is "Brandy and Water."

The second is "Branny and Warwer."

The third, "Bran Warr."

Fourth, "Braorr."

And the fifth, Collapse.

"Do you know that your wife is telling around the club that you can't keep her in clothes?"

"That's nothing. I bought her a home, and I can't keep her in that either."

GOLFER JONES: "Confound it, you almost hit my wife."

GOLFER SMITH: "Did I? Well have a shot at mine."

Pro Tips

You Gotta Have Rhythm

Rhythm and balance are essential elements to a sound golf swing. The most dependable swing is a slow, fluid motion. But pick the tempo that feels best for you, so long as you can maintain balance and control, and stick with it on all shots.

Start your swing in an unhurried manner, then gradually build up speed. Turn fully with the shoulders and the hips will follow. Bring the club back with your left shoulder, turning the point of the shoulder toward and then away from the golf ball, allowing only a slight bend of the left arm.

At the top of the backswing most of the weight should be on the right side; specifically on the inside of the right foot, not the outside.

The unwinding should be an unhurried yet accelerated downward pull of the left hand and arm—avoid lunging—that ends with the weight on the outside of the left foot.

What makes a fashion show?

2½ day fuss for extravaganza

By JEANNE DEVORE

Of The Daily Astorian

"I'm ready to tear my hair", came the initial wail, followed some moments later with "Everything I put together one day comes unglued the next day . . . and right now EVERYTHING is unglued."

Not a real catastrophe. Just Pat West trying to put together a fashion show with things not going too well.

"Why? Oh yes, why? Because I've had experience in the fashion world," comes the mocking retort still sounding like a lament. It wasn't until several hours after I had volunteered assistance to the cause that a real discovery was made . . . neither one of us had ever done anything in the way of putting on a fashion show.

Undaunted and oblivious of complications, we pursued the endeavor with pell mell persistence.

Taking two to two-and-a-half weeks to draft, engineer, and execute a mediocre fashion show is not bad. But we were not to be satisfied with a mediocre show. Nothing doing. First class. So we took two-and-a-half days.

More hair pulling, ranting and raving, and running from shop to shop lining up garments.

Actually I was an observer through most of the process, being somewhat gainfully employed and detained by my labors. Pat, the lady of leisure as I had always pictured her, living in her beautiful home atop the hill with two lovely children still at home and a husband who mixes excellent before dinner cocktails in modified ice tea glasses . . . no that was a different story.

Pat, with long red hair streaming in the wind, did double time between the shops of Seaside and Astoria and the Astoria Golf and Country Club trying to glue things together for the show.

Passing a construction crew along U.S. Highway 101 near Warrenton one afternoon, she quipped, "I just know they think I'm flirting. I bet I've been by here six times already today." (They WERE smiling.)

Approaching the various store managers and owners for cooperation in the effort the composel of attitudes included a "lady-are-you-sure-you-know-what-you-are-doing" response to several "Pat-if-there-is-anything-I-can-do-to-help-let-me-know" comments.

By walk-through time (resembling a rehearsal) commentary for the vehicle was still not written, some of the costumes were still not decided upon, and Pat was still not sure if she had been in her right mind when she agreed to do the show.

After six hours of writing what we decided were real knock-em-dead phrases and a wee hour breakfast we adjourned for some needed rest some 18 hours before show time.

A happy ending would call for the show to have gone off without a hitch. Actually there is a semi-happy ending, there were only minor hitches. But, the show was well received and three days later Pat was almost back to normal declaring the whole escapade was "the most fun I've had in a long time."

Daily Astorian

Lady, you sure you know what you're doing?

Carlyle "Butch" Mahnke was cooperation personified in preparations for the fashion show but at times appeared apprehensive when Pat West tried explaining her methods and procedures for execution of the show.

Count losers. We have four Diamond losers and one Club loser. We can trump Diamonds in the dummy but we have trouble getting back to our hand each time. All our trumps are high except for the Five of Hearts in the dummy. Why not make these trumps separately? Instead of four trumps tricks we will have eight by trumping Diamonds in one hand and Spades in the other.

This line of play should be investigated any time the declarer and the dummy each have a singleton and there is not a good side suit in either hand that can be set up by one or two ruffs.

When planning to cross ruff a hand, Declarer should be careful to cash high card tricks in side suits before starting the cross ruff so that opponents cannot trump these tricks later.

Scooping is for Ice Cream!

If hitting either behind the ball or on top of it on the upswing is something you do frequently, you might be surprised to learn that you are in good company. The fault is scooping, not hitting down and through, and it is probably the most common error made by golfers of all handicaps. To hit a perfect shot, with backspin, or bite, is not all the mystery it seems to be. You must catch the back of the ball first, and then the ground. Here's a tip that will help you recognize this fault and correct it.

Analyze the swath your clubhead makes through the grass as you take your practice swing. The idea is to make the clubhead strike the exact spot in the grass where the leading edge of the sole rested at address.

Address an imaginary ball about midway between the feet, depending on your swing. Practice trying to make the correct swath with your hands leading the clubhead. Concentrate on a smooth swing as you practice.

If the problem is chronic, talk it over with your Pro.

If your game persists in giving you trouble, the man to see is your Pro. He'll analyze your problem and suggest a remedy.

Annual Report
Astoria Golf & Country Club
1970

PRESIDENT'S REPORT 1970

This year has been a most exciting and successful year for the Astoria Golf and Country Club. This success is all because of a truly hard working board of directors and a most outstanding and efficient staff.

In looking back over the year, we crossed many a crisis with the various problems of placing our wonderful new club house into operation, and then of course we had the unfortunate circumstance of replacing our golf professional. Now that it is past, I feel that we are strengthened in all respects as to the new golf professional, Bob Gasper, and Tom McDonough has the new plant ticking along like a clock. Of course none of this would be in existence if we did not have the great golf course that we have, and to Roy Thompson and his great crew we do offer a great deal of gratitude for the great job they have done for us this year. All of us join together and do sincerely thank each and every member of the fine crew that we now have on our staff both inside and out, and I hope that they will continue in the same great manner for the year to come as they have done this year.

I would like to thank the membership at large for their patience during some of the more trying times that we have experienced together during our rebuilding period, and now that it is completed, I sincerely hope that you will join with the board and me and enjoy our great facility together.

In order to facilitate the annual meeting, we are changing the format somewhat in having this report and the report of the committees enclosed herein mailed to you prior to the meeting. The reports of the various committees are complete and they speak for themselves for the great accomplishments your club has done this year. I do thank most sincerely the committees one by one because they have spent many hours as well as the directors in their deliberations this year. The board met more times this year than the normal number a director is asked to meet during his entire three years on the board.

We have a great report from the nominating committee for candidates for the three directors going off the board, and I wish them all well and particularly the three that will replace Jim McCallister, George Abrahamson and myself.

I would also like to thank Mrs. Myrtle Paulson and Mrs. Edith Henningsgaard for the fine cooperation shown by the women of the Astoria Golf and Country Club during the past year.

Again I would like to thank you for permitting me to have served as your president. It has been a great pleasure, but it will be great to be a normal member again.

Sincerely,
Harry R. Swanson, Jr.

HOUSE COMMITTEE REPORT 1970

L. F. Van Dusen
House Committee Chairman

With the occupation of our new club house, the house committee has faced numerous problems, challenges, and opportunities.

From January 1 through September 30 the net profit from the bar and the dining room operations totalled $30,548.00, an average of $3,300.00 per month. Of this amount, $4,511.00 was the net from the kitchen and dining room. This profit is an unusual—if not unique—achievement for which primary credit must be given our club manager.

To attain this profit position, the board of directors made a difficult but essential decision. This decision was to obtain a liquor license permitting use of the premises to non-members. We feel this action was sound as it has allowed the club to benefit from numerous banquets and other affairs that otherwise would not have been legally permitted. The benefits to our membership are obvious but even these may be subordinate to the public relations involved in benefits to the entire community.

Membership support of the dining room and bar has been excellent. The club system with monthly billing seems to be a strong factor encouraging usage. There have been minor problems in this area but the practice is now well established and working smoothly. Total expenditures of all members are recorded in the office and any member has access to his own figures at any time.

Under the able direction of the women of the club, a full social schedule has been maintained, and well supported, throughout the year. Club facilities have also been made available to minors for organized activities. They have been generally successful and have presented no problems. The same situation prevails in the use of the locker rooms.

Several additions of equipment have been made since the club house was completed. They include a color TV, additional ovens, a piano, outside flood lights, and a direct Seaside telephone line.

GREENS COMMITTEE REPORT 1970

Donald A. Edy
Golf Committee Chairman

The primary objective of the greens committee during the past year has been to maintain the golf course in the best possible condition, consistent with the manpower available and with a minimum of capital expenditure.

Roy Thompson and his crew have done an outstanding job and are to be complimented for the excellent condition of the course this past year.

Two capital expenditures were authorized by the Board of Directors. In October a new green and tee spiker was purchased for $1,250.00 and a new building for electric cart storage was authorized with the cost not to exceed $10,000.00. This building has now been completed and the final cost is as follows:

Site preparation—grading and paving	$1,147.50
Electrical	640.00
Building erected on the site complete	7,425.00
	$9,212.50

During the past two months, as demand for mowing has declined, the crew has constructed a new cart path from 10 green to 11 tee and built a practice trap adjacent to the practice green near 11 tee.

I wish to express the committee's appreciation to most members for their consideration in caring for the golf course. Replacing divots, keeping electric carts away from the greens and tees, repairing ball marks on the greens and raking traps are very important if we are to maintain the golf course to the standards we expect at Astoria.

It will be the recommendation of the greens committee to the new board that those members consistently disregarding the care of the golf course be given written warning for the first reported offense and upon a second offense have their golf privileges suspended by board action for one week.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE REPORT 1970

Gen. J. W. Johnston
Membership Committee Chairman

As may be seen from an examination of the tabulation herunder, our membership has continued to grow at a most favorable rate. We have increased the number of regular members both by attracting new members and by the conversion of memberships formerly held in the non-resident category. The number of non-resident members in relationship to regular members seems to be in much better proportion than in prior years. We have increased the number of social members and additional effort will be made to expand this category further.

GOLF COMMITTEE 1970

George Abrahamson, Chairman & Board Member
Joe Knutsen, Board Member
Joe Bakken
Joe Bruneau
Larry Deard
Mrs. Henningsgaard

This is the first time in quite a few years that more than one person has actively served on a Golf Committee in this club. It has worked out very well and I would urge that the next president make sure all committees have at least 4 members plus a chairman.

The biggest job this committee had in 1970 was to select a new head golf professional. Ralph Dichter was added to the committee to help with this chore.

As most of you know we had some 35 professionals apply for this job. The committee worked the list down to a final nine, with the help of a PGA advisory committee. The final nine were invited to our club for lunch, 18 holes of golf and dinner. Then through personal interviews we eliminated six and brought three back to the board for final interviews. The board made the final selection after giving each of the three a one and a half hour interview.

Bob Gasper, assistant pro at Portland Golf Club, was given the job. I hope you will all make a point of getting acquainted with Bob after this meeting.

The golf committee drafted a contract to be used for the professional's job, with some additions and deletions by the board. Bob Gasper will be signed for one year at this time. This is the first time we have had a contract spelling out the pro's duties and his income items.

There have been some improvements made to the pro shop. The N.W. corner has been closed in to give additional space to display merchandise. A dutch door into the club storage area was installed. Members are not supposed to go into the storage area, only the employees of the pro. The committee recommends that all members honor this rule.

Some additional shelving has been installed in club storage area to relieve the crowded conditions.

The interior of the merchandising area of the pro shop has been cleaned up and painted.

I want to thank the members of the Golf Committee and Ralph Dichter for the many hours they contributed toward selecting the new head golf professional for our club.

The Golf Committee hopes that their time and effort have gone into making this a more enjoyable place to play golf.

BUDGET COMMITTEE 1970

H. William Larson, Chairman
Donald A. Edy
Roy M. Thompson
Thomas M. McDonough

In February 1970 this committee met and made the first estimated budget for the new club house. With only estimates to go on we worked out a departmental budget. It is amazing how close we came in some areas and other areas we missed.

This year's budget committee will be in better shape as it has one full year's operation and statement to base their budget on.

TREASURER'S REPORT 1970

H. William Larson, Treasurer

The important aspects of the financial position of the Astoria Golf and Country Club at the end of 11 months of its 1969-70 fiscal year are as follows. (At the time this report was written 12 months' figures were not available).

ASSETS: September 30, 1970

Total Cash Accounts	$ 58,606
(Includes operating, savings, and tax reserve accounts)
Time Payments Accounts	100,548
(Includes cash, accounts receivable, inventories, and prepaid expenses)
Due (Time payments of initial fees)	23,239
Property, Land and Equipment	654,730
(Cost of land, buildings, fixtures and machinery)
Less Accrued Depreciation (est.)	99,853
Book Value	554,877
Total Assets	$678,664

Liabilities and Net Worth

Current Liabilities	$ 27,998
(Included accounts payable and accrued property taxes)
Mortgage Payable	336,488
(First National Bank)
Net Worth	$314,178

On the basis of 314 certificate holders (including time payment holders) the value of each certificate expressed in terms of a share in the net worth is $1,000.00. In terms of a share in the book value $1,767; in terms of a share in the total assets $2,161.

The dues structure for all types of membership remained the same for the year, and unless unforeseen expenditures, or unanticipated losses are experienced during the next operating year the outlook is that no changes will be required.

For 11 months the overall operation of the club returned a profit of $28,402. Contributions of departments were:

Bar	$26,037
Dining Room	4,511
Golf Course	(2,146)

The foregoing profit report is based on an estimation of the depreciation factor. Some adjustment upward of this factor is expected in the final months' figures. Consequently the profit position for 11 months is probably somewhat overstated.

Important board actions that took place during the fiscal year that will have an effect on the club's financial status are as follows:

In April voted to relinquish its tax-exempt, non-profit status. This is to take effect November 1, 1970.

Voted to increase initiation fees from $330.00 to $750.00. This became effective October 1, 1970.

The treasurer commends the membership for the support and Tom McDonough for the management that combined to make 1969-70 a successful financial year for the Astoria Golf and Country Club.

TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE REPORT 1970

James McCallister, Chairman

1970 was a great golf and tournament year at the Astoria Golf and Country Club. It was a year that saw the 60th Oregon Coast Tournament with the largest field in its history. It was a year where lots of members helped and with lots of chairmen to give credit to. Below are a few of the tournaments held and the various winners.

Senior—R. J. Nichols.

Women's—Edean Hanfeldt.

There were 344 contestants.

Astoria 4-Man Invitational winner was Riverside Golf and Country Club.

Contestants included 22 teams representing Riverside Golf and Country Club, Columbia Edgewater, Oswego Lake Country Club, Royal Oaks, St. Helens, Eastmoreland, Rose City, Rock Creek, Mountain View, Salashan, Forest Hills, Shadow Hills and Astoria.

Competing for club championship there were 129. The winner is Ron Wells; the runner up was Bob Lane.

The Breakfast Club meets the second Sunday of every month, their average turn out is 45.

Saturday March 27 - International Buffet Night - Featuring France. The third in a series of International buffet nights featuring the food of France. There will also be dancing in the lounge. Reservations would be appreciated to insure there is enough food prepared.

The Pres Sez: A brief progress report to the membership is in order: Major committees have been appointed, proposed budgets prepared and reviewed, and as a result of these and other efforts, the Board of Directors believes that a solid program for an active, pleasureable and profitable year is in the making. Dr. Jorma Leinassor is Chairman of the Oregon Coast Tournament this year and is lining up his committees to make this an outstanding event on the Club calendar.

As a means of improving the channel of communication between the membership and the Board, an informal membership meeting is planned each quarter. The first of these meetings will be held at the Club at 6PM.

on March 17, 1971. All members are invited to attend and give the Board the benefit of your suggestions and comments of the Club operation.

Golf News. It won't be long before our golfing season is upon us. If a new set of golf clubs are in order, remember the Pro Shop carries all the top lines of golf clubs and equipment. Also, just because you don't see them, the Pro Shop carries or can get medium priced golf equipment. So if you don't see what you need ask for it. It looks like golf balls will go up in price sometime in 1972. Some are already up, but the Pro Shop will not increase its prices this year if possible.

The Pro Shop has a new dressing room located in the far right hand corner of the shop. You can tell the dressing room by its color, (bright orange) The Pro Shop is also working on a new driving mattee for the practice area. We hope to have it finished in March sometime.

Golf Tip: Take your golf lessons when the weather is fairly good and when you have a chance to practice a little after the lesson. Please, not the day before or the day of a tournament.

From the Manager's Desk. The month of February was a good month. Parties and Buffets were well attended and we hope that you will enjoy the events that the various committees have planned for you this coming month. A new innovation in the Club Bulletin this month is an article written by the President of the Club. Don't forget that the staff and myself are here to make your Club enjoyable, so when planning a party or reception think of us, we can do a superb job for you.

Congratulations are in order to our chef and his lovely wife, Linda, who are the proud new parents of their first child, Jessica Ann, who was born February 6, 1971.

Effective March 1, 1971 the cart storage fee will be raised $2.50 per month to the total of $7.50 per month. This action was taken by the Board of Directors at the last meeting.

The mix up on the billing the last two months has been corrected on your lockers. The charge is $1.50 per month or $9.00 semi-annually. We are sorry for the confusion.

'Till next month,

Tom

Count your losers. No Spades, 1 Heart, 1 Diamond because we were fortunate enough to get the Diamond lead. If East plays the Ace, we will win the second Diamond with our King and later trump the third Diamond. In Clubs, we are missing two honors. We must hope these honors are split, one in each hand or both in the East.

Declarer should lead trumps as soon as he obtains the lead as there are plenty of trumps in both hands. The second trump should be won in the dummy so that a Club finesse can be tried. A small Club should be led and the Ten of Clubs put in. If it forces out the King, your worries are over. If it fails to the Jack, you must go to the dummy again by trumping a Diamond, lead another small Club and put in the Queen. Don't be afraid to finesse twice. The play of the Ten on the first finesse is called a double finesse—we are hoping our low honor will force out the highest honor.

CLUB QUIPS

Lifting the elbow is the cause of erratic drives and wild swings. This is particularly true when the elbow-lifting starts in the clubhouse.

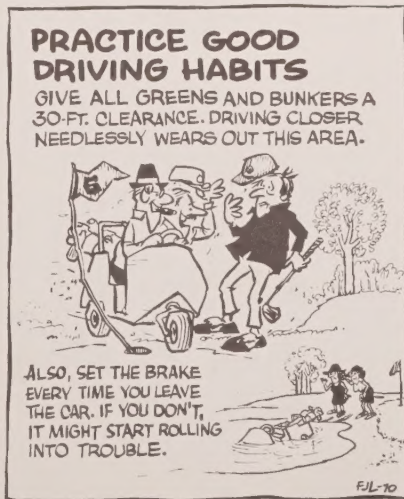

Two golfers were discussing the even-temper, outwardly calm manner of one of their regular group no matter how badly he played.

Replied a third: "Yes, it's true Charlie doesn't throw clubs or curse, but every time he misses a shot he spits. And I've noticed that wherever he spits, the grass doesn't grow there anymore."

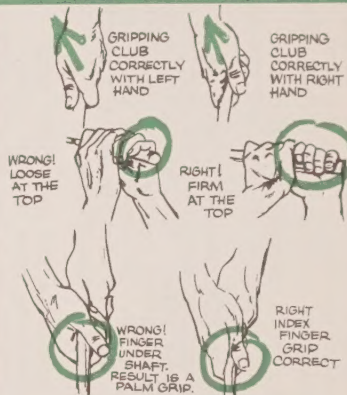

FIRST BRIDGE PLAYER: "What did you bid no trump on? I had three aces and four kings."

SECOND BRIDGE PLAYER: "Well, if you really want to know—one jack, two queens and four martinis."

And there was the golfer who cheated so much when he made a hole in one he gave himself a zero.

Pro Tips

Check Your Grip

A faulty grip is the most common cause of bad golf. So, if your game is in somewhat of a mess, check your grip. Remember, the grip is the beginning of everything. The swing starts with the hands and ends with the hands.

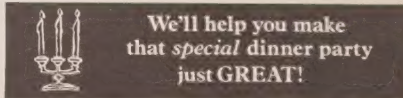

Check yourself on these important points:

Whether you prefer the overlapping, interlocking or the full-finger grip, the V's formed by the thumb and forefinger of each hand generally point over the right shoulder.

Watch out for looseness in your grip at the top of the backswing, and "losing" the right index finger by letting it go under the shaft.

Some little latitude is allowable, and a slight departure from the normal grip may be helpful, depending on the individual golfer's problem, and his particular swing characteristics. See your Pro, he can offer you advice on this question.

If your game persists in giving you trouble, the man to see is your Pro.
